Re: Docket #CR-03-255
Subject: Stan Maynard, self

May 01 2006

Dear Judge Block

I am currently serving a sentence of One year and One day imposed by your honor as a result of a violation of my Supervised release.

I am attaching an 'order' from this honorable court indicating, at least what I perceived at sentencing to be a 'split sentence'. During my recent team meeting here at the institution my unit manager and case manager misinterpreted the mentioned attached 'order' to indicate that 90% of my time imposed (minus the good time) be served in the institution, with 10% (1 month) to be served in a Community Confinement Center, better known as a half-way-house.

It was later suggested verbally that possibly 20% (60 days) could be served in a Community Confinement Center.

To have a better understanding I consulted the 'Webster Dictionary' for a plain and concise definition on, as the 'order' states, "Part" ... 'to divide into parts' ... 'to keep in separate'. Taking that precise and accurate definition, coupled with the fact of you other suggestions of placement of confinement i.e. Incarceration, Community Confinement and Home Confinement, a fair interpretation of your honors 'order' would be for me to serve three months in each component, consistent with your honors order. Or possibly, if it pleases the court, spend 50% of my time incarcerated and 50% in a Community Correction Center, and or Home Confinement.

I feel this a correct interpretation, not only consistent with this courts 'order', but serve a better justice, allowing me more time to meet my needs, so I will not have to become a repeat offender.

Also, in an effort to be consistent with the recent ruling out of the Third Circuits Court of Appeals:

Woodall v. The Federal Bureau of Prisons
No. 05-3657 (Filed December 15, 2005)

Woodall clearly violates the governing 10% statue of 18 U.S.C. §3621 (b) without an individualized determination for each prisoners needs.

I aver that consistent with Woodall, I have no employment, my financial funds are depleted and my current landlord is in the process of eviction proceedings.

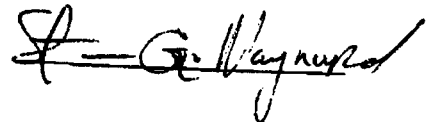

Also worth mentioning is the fact that if your honor pleases an investigation of my institutional record since my imprisonment will indicate a well behaved inmate showing every indication of reformation.

I humbly and respectfully ask the court to forward an 'order' of clarification, with the original sent to:

Mr. Tom Molvey, Unit Manager
Fort Dix Camp
P.O. Box 1000
Fort Dix, New Jersey 08640

I thank your honor for your compassion, and I remain ...

Respectfully yours,

Enclosures:

P.S. If your honor would be gracious enough, please send a copy of all correspondence sent to Mr. Molvey, directly to me.

The decision concerning community confinement rests with the Bureau of Prisons.
The Court must not interfere with the exercise of its discretion.

SO ORDERED.
